S M -182 BEAN HOUSE (ruin)
Great Mills
Private

early 19th century

Now in ruins, this house was begun early in the 19th century and enlarged and finished circa 1820.

The earliest section was a 1 1/2-story structure with one room and a side hall. Soon after this was built, another room and an attached kitchen were added to the east end, more than doubling the size of the structure.
